

Bloomsbury Central London Campus

Birkbeck, University London is located in Bloomsbury Central London.

Main entrance: Torrington Square, Bloomsbury, London, WC1E 7JL (Google Maps)

Travel to Birkbeck Bloomsbury Campus

Public transport

- Birkbeck is surrounded by Tube and mainline rail stations: the Campus is close to Russell Square, Tottenham Court Road, King's Cross/St Pancras and Euston.
- Many buses pass down nearby Gower Street or go via Russell Square.
- To plan your journey to Birkbeck using public transport, see the Transport for London Journey Planner.

Bike

- An extensive network of cycle routes lead to Birkbeck, and there are ample cycle rack facilities around the Malet Street building, including a number of lockable cycle bins.

Car

- If you are planning your journey by car, please bear in mind that the Congestion Charge applies, while central London parking facilities are both limited and often expensive.
- View driving directions from your location to our main campus on Malet Street.

Parking

- There are no public parking facilities on campus, but there are NCP facilities nearby at Woburn Place and Bloomsbury Place, which you will have to pay for.

Travel From Airports

- If you are flying into London Heathrow, you can take the Underground (Piccadilly Line, eastbound) to King's Cross/St Pancras or to Russell Square, both of which are close to Birkbeck.
- If you are flying into Gatwick, you can take a fast train to Victoria or a slower train to King's Cross/St Pancras. You can reach Birkbeck via public transport from Victoria, while King's Cross/St Pancras is close by.
- Planning your initial journey on arrival will depend largely where you will stay in London. Useful websites include:
 - Transport for London Journey Planner
 - Streetmap online.

Birkbeck Campus Map

